Ms. Kelly Turnure
[redacted]

Dear Ms. Turnure:

This office is in receipt of your correspondence dated May 11, 2021. Judge Egitto has asked that I respond.

As Supervising Judge of the Family Courts for the Ninth Judicial District, Judge Egitto strives to insure that all litigants receive from court personnel, the respect, fairness and attention to which they are entitled. However his administrative authority is not without limitation.

As I previously explained, due to confidentiality concerns, this office cannot discuss any matter to which you are not a party.

Mr. Russell and/or his attorney may make arrangements with the clerk's office to review the contents of the Court's file for his case.

Mr. Russell is encouraged to speak with his attorney about his rights and responsibilities in his proceedings; including, but not limited to, the means by which to reopen a default judgement and the filing of an appeal of a decision and order of the court.

Very truly yours,

KELLY S. MYERS
Principal Court Attorney
