DV-100, RECENT ABUSE

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF STEPHEN G. RUSSELL

I, Stephen G. Russell, declare as follows:

1. The following information is based upon my personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify thereto, I could and would do so competently. I submit this Declaration in further support of my Request for a Domestic Violence Protective Order against Tara Katelyn Walsh ("Ms. Walsh"), my former girlfriend and the mother of our one-year old daughter, E.V. ("Evie"), in light of new evidence discovered in the course of ongoing discovery.

I. BRIEF BACKRGROUND OF ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE DISCOVERED AFTER THE JUNE 3, 2019 DVRO FILING AND AFTER THE JULY 3, 2019 HEARING DATE ON THE DVRO

2. Through discovery in the pending civil action against Ms. Walsh entitled Russell v. Walsh, SFSC Case No. CGC-18-570137, I have discovered disturbing evidence that solidifies and reinforces my fears that Ms. Walsh is continuing to engage in a pattern of abuse and harassment designed to intimidate me and cause me anxiety. As previously detailed to this Court, Ms. Walsh physically assaulted me, surreptitiously drugged me with anti-psychotic medication prescribed to her, Seroquel, (causing me severe fatigue and confusion), and also has more recently verbally threatened to release compromising and embarrassing videos of me. Specifically, the new evidence reveals the following:

- Ms. Walsh did in fact surreptitiously take video and audio recordings of me during my state of confusion to blackmail and extort me. As detailed below, Ms. Walsh has produced various video and audio recordings taken without my knowledge or consent. The manner in which these recordings were taken indicate the great lengths Ms. Walsh went to conceal her phone from me while making these recordings.
- Ms. Walsh submitted an audio recording with a corresponding transcript of a telephone conversation with me in which Ms. Walsh makes an explicit threat that she has a "bunch of" videos and photos of me, including "stuff [I] haven't seen yet," that she will release if I refuse to submit to her demands.

- Ms. Walsh also produced correspondence in which Ms. Walsh tells a third party that she may just feign a relationship with (including marrying me) for monetary gain as that would be "sweet revenge." Additionally, Ms. Walsh stated to the same third party that there was "almost a guarantee" that she would "explode" and cause me "physical harm" if she moved back to San Francisco.

3. Two things are now clear beyond a measure of doubt – (1) Ms. Walsh took and has compromising and embarrassing videos of me, and, (2) Ms. Walsh has threatened to release them publicly if I don't do what she demands. These admissions by Ms. Walsh, along with Ms. Walsh's admissions to drugging me, past physical abuse, and prior threats to release embarrassing and compromising videos of me, have caused me heightened anxiety and have only confirmed my fear that Ms. Walsh will go to any lengths to harm me and my reputation.

II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND OF ADDITIONAL AND NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE

4. As detailed in the May 30, 2019 Declaration of my attorney Ned Gelhaar, on December 10, 2018, we propounded discovery on Ms. Walsh, including a Request for Production of Documents, Set One, in connection with a pending civil action against Ms. Walsh entitled Russell v. Walsh, SFSC Case No. CGC-18-570137. Due to Ms. Walsh's non-compliance and after multiple meet and confer attempts, we had no choice but to a file a Motion to Compel against Ms. Walsh which was set for hearing on June 10, 2019. The Motion to Compel included Request for Production, Set One ("RPD"), category No. 30, which requested the following records: all "... photographs, videotapes, recordings, and/or reports by third parties . . ." in Ms. Walsh's possession, custody or control.

5. My Motion to Compel was granted in full and Ms. Walsh was ordered to serve a further response to the RPD, and to produce any and all documents responsive to RPD category Nos. 28, 29, and 30 without objections other than for attorney-client privilege on or before June 30, 2019.

6. Ms. Walsh was also ordered to pay me the sum of $5,000 as a monetary sanction on or before June 30, 2019. Ms. Walsh was further ordered to comply with our Joint Stipulation Regarding Discovery Dispute dated April 18, 2019. A true and correct copy of the June 17, 2019 Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Response/Compliance and Request for Monetary Sanctions along with the Joint Stipulation (Exhibit "1" to the Order) are attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

7. On June 28, 2019, Ms. Walsh's counsel produced further responsive documents and media pursuant to the Court's June 17, 2019 Order. A true and correct copy of the e-mail enclosing the Dropbox link with the responsive records is attached hereto as Exhibit "B." On July 5, 2019, Ms. Walsh's counsel produced supplemental further responsive records that were "inadvertently omitted" from the production on June 28, 2019. A true and correct copy of the letter enclosing the link is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

III. MS. WALSH'S DOCUMENT PRODUCTION PROVIDES ADDITIONAL CONCRETE PROOF THAT SHE HAS THREATENED ME AND IS ATTEMPTING TO EXTORT ME

8. Ms. Walsh's July 5, 2019 supplemental production included a document Bates-stamped "WALSH_005694," and titled "Audio: Walsh 4056." The document accurately reflects a conversation between me and Ms. Walsh that occurred in or around November 2018. A true and correct copy of the transcript is attached hereto as Exhibit "D." A corresponding audio file 18 minutes and 24 seconds in length was also produced Bates-stamped WALSH_004056.m4a. A true and correct copy of the audio recording entitled "WALSH_004056.M4A" is attached hereto by USB Drive as Exhibit "E."

9. During this call, Ms. Walsh and I discussed our custodial arrangements and a potential parenting plan that would involve Ms. Walsh moving back to San Francisco with our minor daughter, Evie. Within the conversation, I expressed my concerns about Ms. Walsh and our minor daughter continuing to live with Ms. Walsh's family given their history of dysfunction and Ms. Walsh's mental illness. In response, as reflected in the transcript produced by Ms. Walsh, the following exchange occurs:

> Tara: "I have a bunch of videos. I have a bunch of [pho...[1]]...I have stuff you haven't seen yet. I do not think you want to pursue this civil court thing Steve. I really don't want to go this route. You should not be taking this route. You need to be reasonable. Like I'm sorry..."
> Steve: "I hear you that you're threatening me and you say you've got things that are embarrassing to me.
> Tara: "No, Steve. I'm telling you because I don't want to go there. I don't want to be at war with you."
> See Exhibit "D," Page 4, Bates-stamped "Walsh_005697."

10. I understood and still understand this to be an unequivocal threat that Ms. Walsh is going to release embarrassing and compromising videos and/or photos of me if I refuse to meet Ms. Walsh's demands. This evidence is further proof that my concerns are legitimate and Ms. Walsh did in fact make these threats against me. I remain incredibly fearful that without a restraining order in place Ms. Walsh will feel emboldened to "make good" on her threats to release the videos.

11. My concern is further heightened by Ms. Walsh's production of photos of my various confidential financial records which were stored in private. Ms. Walsh took photos of my W-2s (Bates-stamped Walsh_003425 and Walsh_003426) and various other records, contracts, and letters detailing my stock shares (Bates-stamped Walsh_003421-Walsh_003423) and other confidential, financial information (Bates-stamped Walsh_003612-Walsh_003614) without my consent. I had no knowledge Ms. Walsh had this information in her possession until my review or her further and supplemental production. True and correct [redacted] copies of these photos are attached hereto as Exhibit "F." For the purposes of protecting my privacy, I have redacted some identifying information.

12. Ms. Walsh also produced the contents of text messages between herself and Matan Gavish (who I understand is now her boyfriend) from February 20, 2018. In this conversation, Ms. Walsh and Mr. Gavish have the following exchange reflected in the produced document Bates-stamped as Walsh_004106 and Walsh_004107 and attached hereto, in pertinent part, as Exhibit "G.":

[1] After listening to the corresponding audio recording, at the 10:00 minute mark when Ms. Walsh makes this threat, she begins to say what I understand as the word "photo." Therefore, I made this addition to the text.

> Ms. Walsh: Steve is trying to blackmail me to move to sf-been such a wonderful experience…No it kind of is bc baby is a lot of work and not sure how I can build or keep business- and he's taken back his offer to support me here-only if I am there. To be a "family" or else. [sic.]
> Mr. Gavish: Lawyer up.
> Ms. Walsh: Well he is going to buy a $2.3 million dollar apartment in sf and put it in trust under Evie's name I can also control So his mom said to just come there for a few week then can always sell it and say [middle finger emoji]. [sic.]
> Mr. Gavish: Trusts can be altered.
> Ms. Walsh: In what way?
> Mr. Gavish: You are losing to him already You are being strung along and manipulated. [sic.]
> Ms. Walsh: Yeah well he's pushing me into a corner- my dad said having the baby was my idea and my problem. So I have to whatever to survive If I sue him for child support I will get like $2k a month Which is not enough to live off I'm better pretending I want to be with him and getting the most while I can- then leaving him for good.
> Mr. Gavish: Okay, have a fun 40 years.
> Ms. Walsh: More like 6 months…I think he will also marry me if I submit to him then I can just divorce him I really mostly hate him at this point-not sure I can manage to hold myself back. But would be the sweetest revenge if I could.

13. Ms. Walsh's communications not only reveal her desire to take "revenge" against me, but also confirms Ms. Walsh's intent to defraud me, and that she only feigned being in a relationship to extract money from me. Further, in her communications to Mr. Gavish on February 21, 2018, Ms. Walsh admits her desire to physically harm me and her inability to control herself from "exploding at some point."

> Ms. Walsh: I think I can stay here and figure out a way to make it work I think there's a risk of me exploding at some point if I go to sf and casing (sic.) physical harm to steve- which means the baby could be taken from me. Not risk almost a guarantee [sic.]

See Exhibit "G."

14. Even more distressing is the fact that these communications took place well before Ms. Walsh began threatening me, which suggests Ms. Walsh had been attempting to gather damaging information to be used against me throughout our relationship.[2]

IV. MS. WALSH PRODUCED PRIVATE VIDEOS OF ME THAT WERE SURREPTITIOUSLY TAKEN WITHOUT MY KNOWLEDGE OR CONSENT, FURTHER EVIDENCING HER MOTIVE AND INTENT TO PUBLICLY DISSEMINATE PRIVATE VIDEOS OF ME AND CAUSE ME IRREPERABLE HARM

15. Ms. Walsh's document and media production also contains numerous video and audio recordings of me taken surreptitiously without my knowledge or consent in the private setting of my own home or while I was engaging in private conduct - such as going to the hospital for treatment. Ms. Walsh and I lived together in our home in San Francisco and it is clear from the various media Ms. Walsh produced in discovery that throughout this time Ms. Walsh was attempting to gather private and potentially embarrassing footage of me that could be used against me. It is clear she had the means and motive to record me, and did in fact engage in a pattern of recording me.

16. I believe that describing the videos in full or producing the videos into the public record would cause me irreparable harm. As such, I include a general description of the videos and detail the format in which they were taken. If the Court wishes, I will make the videos for the Court's review available under seal.

17. In a video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_003459.MOV, Ms. Walsh is holding her phone at her side while walking and places the camera on a surface (which I believe to be a table) with the camera lens facing up at herself. While the camera records, Ms. Walsh begins to ask me questions in an obvious attempt to obtain embarrassing footage of me. About

[2] In another troubling text from Ms. Walsh to Mr. Gavish on March 2, 2018, Ms. Walsh suggests that perhaps Mr. Gavish could "kidnap" Ms. Walsh and Evie, our minor daughter. Specifically stating: Ms. Walsh: Maybe you can kidnap me and Evie so we don't have to leavel (sic.) really don't want to I just can't do it on my own. See Exhibit "G."

halfway through the video, Ms. Walsh looks down at the camera and flips the camera until she is looking at the lens. This suggests that Ms. Walsh had placed her phone with the screen face down, presumably since she did not want me to see the screen showing a recording video, and was using the rear lens of the phone to record the video of me. After she checks to make sure the camera is recording, she asks me questions about my mental state and I respond. About 2 minutes into the video, she presses the phone up against what appears to be her leg and then flips the camera around and turns it off.

18. In another video Bates-stamped WALSH_005512.MOV, the video appears to be taken from the backseat of a car while I am sitting in the front passenger seat and speaking. The camera becomes completely dark with only a few lights darting by, which seem to be lampposts along the road reflected in the car window. While the video is recording, Ms. Walsh begins asking me questions. The conversation indicates that Ms. Walsh and I were on the way to the hospital emergency room after an occurrence when I began feeling like I had been drugged. The video ends abruptly as the driver is mid-sentence.

19. A video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005515.MOV (0:25) is a recording secretly taken of me while I was checking my medication for possible tampering. This was before Ms. Walsh admitted to being the one who was secretly putting her prescription anti-psychotic pills (Seroquel) in my beverages without my knowledge or consent.

20. A video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005516.m4v is a recording of a person conducting a medical examination kneeling in front of me and checking my eyes with a flashlight. The person describes the effect of different drugs on pupil reactions to light and I am asking questions about it. It appears as if the video was taken from a phone held near Ms. Walsh's lap and close to her body. The camera remains in the same frame nearly throughout the entire video. From my review of the video, the camera is being held very still and deliberately in order to avoid detection.

21. The video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005517.m4v continues from where the previous video ended. The camera is immediately tilted up at the ceiling and a hand covers it briefly before uncovering it and showing only the ceiling. I am heard speaking to the same person as in the previous video. At approximately 1:23 into the video, Ms. Walsh's hand taps the phone screen in what appears to be her keeping the phone on and awake as the camera is recording. It is done very rapidly and the camera continues to point only at the ceiling. While Ms. Walsh is tapping the phone to make sure it is still recording, I can be heard breathing in the background while the examination is conducted.

22. By way of further example, in a video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005582.MOV, I am spending time with our child Evie in our bedroom. While recording, Ms. Walsh begins asking me questions about prescription medication that I was taking while I was playing with Evie and records my responses. I was not aware I was being recorded.

23. In a video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005540.MOV, the recording begins with the camera pointing directly at me as I am talking to Ms. Walsh from the kitchen of my own home. Ms. Walsh flips the camera up to show part of her own face as I am talking. Ms. Walsh smiles briefly at the camera as if she is turning it off, looks at the camera for a couple seconds, then points the camera up at the ceiling while I continue to talk.

24. In a video produced and Bates-stamped WALSH_005710.mov, Ms. Walsh is recording me while holding the phone at her side, in what I believe is an attempt to conceal that she is recording me. While Ms. Walsh is recording, I am showing her what I believed to be security issues around our house. She follows me throughout the video while asking me questions about what I was looking for around the house and what I had found.

25. Ms. Walsh produced numerous other videos secretly taken of me while engaging in what I thought to be private conversations and conduct. I had an expectation of privacy in my own home and while seeking medical treatment and she breached that privacy. I did not consent to her taking videos of me nor did I have any knowledge that she was filming me during these times.

26. I cannot know what additional other videos and media Ms. Walsh has in her possession or the harm she is capable of carrying out against me and my reputation. Indeed, Ms. Walsh has stated that she has "stuff I haven't seen yet." I am increasingly distressed by the evidence that she admitted to others that she desired "sweet revenge" and to physically harm against me. It is clear that Ms. Walsh never really wanted to be in a relationship with me and began gathering highly sensitive and potentially embarrassing videos of me throughout the time we lived together in an attempt to harm, defraud, and extort money from me.

27. In light of my moving papers and this additional newly discovered evidence, I respectfully ask that the Court grant me a permanent Domestic Violence Restraining Order against Ms. Walsh for the maximum period of five (5) years.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 18th day of July 2019 at San Francisco, California.

JOINT STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY DISPUTE

Complaint Filed: September 26, 2018
Cross-Complaint Filed: November 2, 2018
Trial Date: October 28, 2019

JOINT STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY DISPUTE

Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant Stephen Russell ("Plaintiff") and Defendant and Cross-Complainant Tara Walsh ("Defendant", collectively "Parties"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

WHEREAS, on December 10, 2018, Plaintiff served his Requests for Production of Documents (Set One) on Defendant ("Requests").

WHEREAS, on February 15, 2019, Defendant served her written responses to Plaintiff's Requests and began producing purportedly responsive documents.

WHEREAS, having found Defendant's responses and production deficient, on April 3, 2019, Plaintiff filed his Motion to Compel Defendant to Further Respond to Request for Production, Set One, Nos. 28, 29, and 30 ("Motion"). This Motion is set for hearing on April 26, 2019.

WHEREAS, on April 15, 2019, Defendant unequivocally agreed to produce all responsive documents in Defendant's possession, custody, and control responsive to Plaintiff's Requests for Production Nos. 28, 29, and 30, except for documents withheld on the basis of the attorney-client privilege.

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties, through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate and agree to the following:

1. On or before May 3, 2019, Defendant will produce all documents in her possession, custody, and control responsive to Plaintiff's Requests for Production (Set One) Nos. 28, 29 and 30, except for documents withheld on the basis of attorney-client privilege, including but not limited to all of Defendant's COMMUNICATIONS (as defined in the Requests) with (a) Stephen Walsh, (b) Maura Walsh, (c) Matan Gavish, (d) Rosario Ladiere, (e) Rashmi Narendra, (f) Brienne Walsh, (g) Caleb Zipperer, (h) Christopher Ochoa, (i) Jesse Ozeri, (j) Albert Timen, (k) Nir Mamen, (l) George Akkelquist, and/or (m) any other of Plaintiff's Security and Investigative staff, from the date Defendant met Plaintiff to the present (if such exist), that:

- Refer or relate to Plaintiff
- Refer or relate to Defendant drugging Plaintiff
- Record, refer to, or reflect Plaintiff's conduct, including but not limited to photographs, videotapes, and/or reports by third parties.

2. Defendant will produce a privilege log of all responsive documents withheld on the basis of the attorney-client privilege (except communications between Ms. Walsh, on the one hand, and her counsel in this matter and family court litigations between Plaintiff and Defendant) by May 3, 2019.
3. The Parties agree that the Motion is withdrawn without prejudice and Plaintiff's time to file a motion to compel as to the Requests is extended until 20 days after May 3, 2019.

Tara: Yes, no.

Steve: You don't remember it. Why?

Tara: I don't remember which one?

Steve: Do you have access to it?

Tara: Just send it to me again.

Steve: Okay, I'll get it to you. Go through it though.

Tara: Okay

Steve: It was a bunch of things that also included a chunk of money.

Tara: I don't care about the money stuff Steve.

Steve: I'm just telling you. I need, you should care about it you need to pay your bills with your attorneys and stuff and you're going to need money to live. You should be spending time with Evie not running around, right?

Tara: I can't come back to live in San Francisco that is not realistic.

Steve: Okay, well we're going to put back an offer that has that. The last one had two options. Any offers you've got you're going to have to come out here until March so that my family can see Evie again. We don't waste money on like three houses.

Tara: Why can't they come here to see her?

Steve: Cause it's not fair to them. You've stolen Evie, I mean, look, I'm going to give you a resolution, we're going to keep going and you're going to lose this. What you did is wrong and you're going to lose.

Tara: How am I going to lose?

Steve: What you did hon is wrong. You have a significant mental illness. You're in your parent's attic because of that mental illness.

Tara: I'm totally stable Steve

Steve: You can't take care of Evie on your own.

Tara: Yes I can. I totally can. I'm totally like stable.

Steve: That's great.

Tara: You haven't been around me.

Steve: I won't tell you the offer. Sounds like you're good. We'll just kind of keep going as is.

Tara: I don't want to keep going as is, what's the offer?

Steve: My offer is going to require you to come to San Francisco. So, don't say you're not going to come to San Francisco as a start off. If you do that there's not going to be any resolution. You get that.

Tara: There's no middle ground thing we can come up with.

Steve: The middle ground is you come to San Francisco through March when we have two houses here. At the end of March my lease is up. The other house is going, is basically being flipped back in [00:02:30] [inaudible] so between now and March you have to come to San Francisco. After that you can live where you want. Okay?

Tara: Yea, but you realize in New York you have friends and like people you know.

Steve: Yea, I get all that. Tara, you're going to be in your parent's attic for the next year that's how long it's going to take. It's like it's not, I can't afford to maintain like four homes.

Tara: Second, third and fourth home.

Steve: I have to get one out there and I had to get one for you. I have two homes in San Francisco. Do the math that's four.

Tara: You wouldn't have to get for me. Who ever said you'll have to get one for me.

Steve: Okay, alright, well then, three. I'd like to through March maintain paying for two homes that I got for you. But, look if you're not open to being here through March then we doesn't have a deal hon, there's nothing else to talk about. Are you not open to being here through March?

Tara: Just send me your, whatever, the agreement.

Steve: I'm already sent it to you hon. You got it. The message I want to send to you is that deal that I sent every week it's going to get worse. We're going to reduce it by a certain amount because you're wasting everybody's time.

Tara: Steve, why can't you be like reasonable, please.

Steve: I'm being reasonable. I offer you a fantastic settlement in August. You've had Evie, you kept her for all this time, that's not reasonable. That's like cruel. Then you basically told a bunch of lies and your attorney out here is going to be in trouble too because you basically let him make statements that are false. There are sanctions for doing that.

Tara: Steve, the statement you made about me are false though. Like...

Steve: The difference is hon that I don't think they are false. I think they're true. I think they're supported by evidence. The statements you're making, you know to be false and you have no evidence. So, they're different. [00:04:44] [inaudible] to be false because you feel that the statements that I'm making about you are false, I guess. But, they're very different. I feel the statements I made about you are true supported by evidence in your own testimony.

Tara: How many law suits do you have going on right now?

Steve: You know, more than I'd like. We want to get rid of this one, it would be great.

Tara: Are you happy in your life right now?

Steve: I'm actually really happy.

Tara: Okay, well, I am too.

Steve: Well great. So, let's settle down. I'd like my daughter though, that you took from me and I'd like my reputation back and I'd like you to take back the lies that you've done. So, those are going to be conditions in the agreement. My view you know, Tara, is that, by you doing what you did I don't have a lot of choice but to try to let the truth come out.

Tara: Yea, Steve. I really don't want to go down this legal route but like...

Steve: Tara, we're down the legal route. What would you like to do to resolve it? We've made several different proposals to you to resolve it and we've never got a single counter proposal from you.

Tara: That's because...

Steve: I can't hear you. I can hear you now.

Tara: Can we just talk tomorrow because this is a lot to take in.

Steve: I don't think we can talk tomorrow. I'm going to have my attorneys present to you the settlement and it's going to have and I don't want to keep being abused by you. I don't like these conversations. I think they're negative. I don't like the fact that you hold out, you send pictures of Evie trying to pull on my heart strings and make me feel bad after not letting me see here. I think it's cruel. If you want to do something try to resolve it. Send over a proposal, answer my proposal, and stop lying. But, we're quickly approaching a window where I don't have any choice, I don't have no recourse but to get the truth out. But, I'll have my day in court. I really need my day in court if you're going to lie.

Tara: And there's no coming to an alternative agreement aside from me moving there?

Steve: Tara, you took Evie away. It's reasonable for you to come out here through March.

Tara: But Steve, I didn't take Evie away.

Steve: Yes you did.

Tara: I didn't.

Steve: You took her.

Tara: If you read the text messages, I wasn't there to stay there for the long term Steve. I didn't even want to come there...

Steve: Court order keeping you in California.

Tara: Steve, I didn't even want to come there to begin with. I wanted to stay in Brooklyn.

Steve: Tara, you took my child and left the state under a lie. Now you pretend like it was justified. It's gross.

Tara: Evie belongs in New York where she's from, where I'm from, where we live. She was born in New York. Why do you feel she belongs in California? Even if I took her under false pretences California didn't even have jurisdiction over her, like read the law.

Steve: There is jurisdiction there. Look I'm happy to have the case keep going. That's the instructions I had given my attorneys, we're pressing criminal charges against you, we're pursuing the custody case, we have a civil case against you. We're using the [00:08:51] [inaudible], we're trying to basically get justice.

Tara: Do you know I talked to other men who have children, they're just like besides themselves horrified like most men if a woman isn't with them they want the woman to be happy so the woman can take care of the child.

Steve: Tara, I think you're mentally ill. I think your family ruin human lives and it's unconscionable to me to let Evie's life be ruined as well. She's young now, she's a baby and it may be fine right now. There's not a lot you can do to ruin her life or your mom can do to ruin her life. But, I believe this pattern of dysfunction you have in your life and this pattern of dysfunction your parents have in their life, it's really rare to see a family with the history.

Tara: I have a bunch of videos. I have a bunch of... I have stuff you haven't seen yet. I do not think you want to pursue this civil court thing Steve. I really don't want to go this route. You should not be taking this route. You need to be reasonable. Like I'm sorry...

Steve: I hear you that you're threatening me and you say you've got things that are embarrassing to me.

Tara: No, Steve. I'm telling you because I don't want to go there. I don't want to be at war with you.

Steve: Then, come to California through March. Stay at one of our two homes. Let my mom and my brother and my family see Evie. If you want to not go down this route come to one of our two homes through March. Do that.

Tara: Why can you not come to New York and see your daughter?

Steve: I did come to New York. I was in New York for two months and I saw Evie for three hours. I did it. I have a life, I have a job, we have two homes here, you're in your parent's attic because you don't have a place. It is reasonable. In your own proposed settlement you come out here every month and whatever for a longer period once per year or something. So, you can come out through March, it's not that long.

Tara: I have a job now where I need to be meeting with the company once per week. I couldn't even if I wanted to. What?

Steve: I get you're using that as an excuse because you're not making any money off that.

Tara: Yes I am.

Steve: You didn't put that in your proposal. Really how much money are you making for that job?

Tara: I don't want to talk about it Steve.

Steve: Yes it's not very much. You can put it in your proposal. Look I understand this is not getting anywhere. I hear it, what I hear from you is you're going to agitate more, make more threats you're going to put out you're going to be hurtful in public.

Tara: No, I did not.

Steve: You can't win legally so you're just going to basically try to embarrass me. I get it. I hear you're a bad person, Tara. You're a bad person.

Tara: That's not want I'm saying Steve.

Steve: What you're doing is wrong. If you're a good person you wouldn't lie.

Tara: I haven't lied, Steve. I haven't lied, I really haven't. I haven't Steve: Okay, well we're going to give your lawyer a proposal. It's going to get worse every week going forward and especially based on this conversation I realize there's no hope for settlement with you.

Tara: I thought that you and I were going to have conversations and try and be amicable as parents face time with Evie, send you pictures also come up with...

Steve: Tara, look, you should be sending me pictures and face timing with Evie. The fact that you used Evie as you hold her hostage is cruel and it's wrong. You do cruel and wrong things. You think its okay, you don't have a moral sense of right and wrong.

Tara: That's not true Steve.

Steve: Well, you should be showing pictures of Evie and doing face time and not making it a condition of a settlement.

Tara: I'm not making it a condition of settlement, I'm not at all. What are you saying? I'm having this conversation with you because it's not in Evie's best interest for her parents to be at war with each. It takes energy out of me. It takes energy out of you to ask me...

Steve: It's not in Evie's best interest to live in grandma's and grandpa's attic.

Tara: She's doing very, very well here. I'm very happy. We're on a schedule.

Steve: I don't know anything about it Tara. I don't believe you because you're a liar. I don't know anything about anything. I don't have any proof. I don't know that you don't take her out of the house. I don't know what you do. I don't know that she's healthy. I don't know any of these things. I don't know that your mom is not giving her drugs. There's literally nothing I know about it because you are who you are.

Tara: So ask me any question that you want. Like...

Steve: I don't trust your answers. Tara, if you were out of that house, if you came out to San Francisco and you stayed for an extended period of time I would trust your answers. Right now you are held hostage by your parents. You're passing it on holding my daughter hostage. For some reason you absolutely, positively can't leave New York and that does not sound normal. It's very weird that you take that posture. We have two homes in California.

Tara: Okay. This like I'm getting like the sick feeling in my stomach that I've always had before and I don't like feeling this way. I'm just trying to like get through everyday and...

Steve: I'm going to let you go. I don't think you're mentally capable of having settlement conversation.

Tara: That's not true, Steve.

Steve: Tara, like your mental illness prevents you from thinking about any of this and you just said it yourself. You get agitated and you get this feeling in your stomach and you're not able to do anything that's adult or thoughtful and that's what you're doing.

Tara: Because you're yelling at me and saying horrible things about me.

Steve: I'm not yelling at you. I'm proposing a settlement where you will stay at one of our two houses through March and you'd get a big chunk of cash and have a nanny and you're telling me BS stuff like you could never come to California and you have a BS job that you won't tell me how much you make because you have to be there for it. Those are lies. They're like imaginations. You could absolutely come out. You've taken Evie away from not just me but her family in San Francisco. Your family that we basically been with never came and visit us in San Francisco once. I've seen your parent literally one time, other than when Evie was born. It is absurd. You lived with me and my mother for an extended period of time and my mom haven't got to see Evie at all. My brother who has a baby the same age basically, they'd be best friends and they're not hanging out, they're not together because of what you did. It's just wrong. Then you say you're agitated and so you can't talk about it. We're in court battles right now and somebody if you can't, if you don't have the mental ability to talk through this stuff you got to give somebody in your life your father or your lawyer the ability to I don't know talk this through.

Tara: I would like to be able to have another conversation with you but I'm just really, really tired.

Steve: This is the fourth night where we talk. It had to be 8:30 p.m. and the conversation didn't result in anything and you talked about how tired you were. I didn't see Evie at any of those conversations, nothing happened. So, this is what you make my life. It's the fourth time trying to call you and it's nothing. I'll try again tomorrow. I've instructed my lawyers to give you guys a settlement but I want you to understand it's the last time you're going to get this settlement offer, okay? I can't keep doing this and it's crazy to me, it's crazy to me that you keep this going.

Tara: Okay, Steve.

Steve: Get some rest.

Tara: Okay.

EXHIBIT "G"

Yeah my sister freaked out and didn't talk to me for a bit- and told the Peditrician I was mentally unstable and Steve was- it was awful

Collette to Tara Walsh:
Ugh - is all ok with Steve or at least getting a little better

Tara Walsh to Collette:
Yeah it's fine- just bad luck. Yes much better with Steve he's really stepped up- but still need to stay off adderall.

2/18/2018

9:12 PM

Tara Walsh to Rashmi Narendra:

It's hard to talk bc night nurse is here I'm going to bed soon- ru ok? Steve is threatening to not give me money for the night nurse and to support me bc I don't want to live to sf yet I fucking hate him right now To move to sf immediately Like blackmailing me is going to make me hop right on a plane [...] I think his mom is encouraging it I might have no choice but to go bc I really need his financial help I'm down like two clients and the baby is a lot of work during the day And then it will probably blow up and it can be his idea I need to come back here He can be such a jerk- I told him I have zero trust for him anymore

Rashmi Narendra to Tara Walsh:
what does your folks says ..

Tara Walsh to Rashmi Narendra:
They will say no way go back there! Duh

2/20/2018

3:23 PM

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
Steve is trying to blackmail me to move to sf- been such a wonderful experience...No it kind of is bc baby is a lot of work and not sure how I can build or keep business- and he's taken back his offer to support me here- only if I am there. To be a "family" or else

Matan Gavish to Tara Walsh:
Lawyer Up

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
Well he is going to buy a $2.3 million dollar apartment in sf and put it in a trust under Evie's name I can also control So his mom said to just come there for a few weeks then can always sell it and say 🖕 [Fuck You]

Matan Gavish to Tara Walsh:
Trusts can be altered

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
In what way?

Matan Gavish to Tara Walsh:
You are losing to him already You are being strung along and manipulated

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
Yeah well he's pushing me into a corner- my dad said having the baby was my idea and my problem. So I have to do whatever to survive If I sue him for child support I will get like $2k a month Which is not enough to live off of I'm better pretending I want to be with him and getting the most while I can- then leaving him for good.

Matan Gavish to Tara Walsh:
Okay, have a fun 40 years

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
More like 6 months...I think he will also marry me if I submit to him then I can just divorce him I really mostly hate him at this point- not sure I can manage to hold myself back. But would be the sweetest revenge if I could

2/21/2018

3:20 PM

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
I think I can stay here and figure out a way to make it work I think there's a risk of me exploding at some point if I go to sf and casing physical harm to steve- which means the baby could be taken from me. Not risk almost a guarantee

3/1/2018

6:36 PM

Tara Walsh to Rashmi Narendra:
Want to fly on a private jet back with me to sf on Saturday for the night?? I need help bringing the baby and the dogs and my help fell through 😅 I can probably find someone else just thought it would be fun! Long story with me going back...it's been tough on my own.

3/2/2018

5:10 PM

Tara Walsh to Matan Gavish:
Maybe you can kidnap me and Evie so we don't have to leavel really don't want to I just can't do it on my own
