1 (3:23:13 p.m.)

2 COURT OFFICER: Good afternoon, Your Honor, this 3 is Yonkers Family Court, Part 17, this is cases 3 through 5 4 on the court's calendar, file number 154703 in the matter 5 of Russell and Walsh. Counsel, please state your 6 appearance for the record starting with Mr. Weddle.

7 MR. WEDDLE: Chris Weddle, Timko and Moses, 1
8 North Broadway, White Plains, appearing for Tara Walsh, 9 good afternoon, everyone.

10 COURT OFFICER: Good afternoon. Mr. DiFabio?

11 MR. DIFABIO: Max DiFabio for Mr. Russell, good 12 afternoon, Your Honor.

13 COURT OFFICER: Ms. Jackman?

14 MS. JACKMAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor,
15 Jennifer Jackman, attorney assigned to represent the child 16 Evelyn Walsh.

17 COURT OFFICER: Thank you. Ms. Walsh, please 18 raise your right hand. Do you solemnly swear or affirm to 19 tell the truth?

20 MS. WALSH: I do.

21 COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and
22 address for the record, unless confidential.

23 MS. WALSH: My name is Tara Walsh and my address 24 is confidential.

25 COURT OFFICER: And, Mr. Russell, please raise

1 your right hand. Do you solemnly swear or affirm to tell 2 the truth?

3 MR. RUSSELL: I do.

4 COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and
5 address for the record, unless confidential.

6 MR. RUSSELL: Stephen Grant Russell, 107 Bernard
7 Street, San Francisco, California, 94 -- what's the zip 8 code?

9 THE COURT: Did you get the whole zip code?

10 MR. RUSSELL: 94109, yeah.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Before we begin, I'd like 12 to remind you that the rules of the chief judge provide 13 that recording, broadcasting, or streaming court
14 proceedings is not permitted. Court is making the only 15 official record (inaudible) in violation can be prosecuted.
16 We're here for a conference.

17 We were last in court on May 19th. As a result 18 of that conference, the Court issued a temporary Order of 19 Custody and Visitation for Mr. Russell. My understanding 20 is that the visits, which were supposed to be supervised by 21 Jennifer Cully (ph) did not occur. We have had a lengthy 22 attorneys' conference, and I believe we have a framework 23 for a new order moving forward. Does anyone want to begin?

24 MR. DIFABIO: Yes, Your Honor. With respect to 25 my client's position, Judge, my client envisioned that his

1 mother would visit with the child every Monday, Tuesday, 2 and Wednesday initially for two-hour increments, moving to 3 four, then to eight. At such times that my client, excuse 4 me, my client's mom would be with the child on those days, 5 my client would have FaceTime access with the child to be 6 supervised or facilitated by Ms. Jennifer Cully on those 7 dates and times with an eye towards, perhaps in the third 8 week, Judge, my client being permitted to fly into New 9 York, spend those hours with the child, Grandma, and Ms.
10 Cully via FaceTime, and that was the offer conveyed to me
11 by my client and I conveyed that to Mr. Weddle and Ms.
12 Jackman.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And we did discuss that and 14 it's my understanding that those times were not convenience 15 -- or at least during the daytime -- for Ms. Walsh. Mr.
16 Weddle?

17 MR. WEDDLE: That is correct, Your Honor. What 18 we would propose is that on alternating weekends that the 19 grandmother be afforded three hours on Saturday and three 20 hours on Sunday of visitation with Evie (ph). During that 21 time, they could also FaceTime with Mr. Russell and Jen 22 Cully would be present during those FaceTime meetings. We 23 would ask those -- those visitations take place in the town 24 of New Castle, that they be local. We'd like to know where 25 the child is during those visits.

1 In addition, we'd like 24-hour confirmation that,
2 in fact, Ms. Russell, Mr. Russell's mother was, in fact,
3 planning on coming to New York and keeping those visits.
4 We would ask that Ms. Walsh at least initially because it's 5 been awhile since Ms. Russell has had contact with Evie, so 6 Ms. Walsh would like to be present at the beginning just to 7 make sure that Evie is comfortable with her grandmother at 8 least initially. And that's what we're proposing.

9 We would also ask that Mr. Russell not be 10 physically -- we'd ask for an order that Mr. Russell not be 11 physically -- be present for any of these interactions 12 between Evie and her grandmother.

13 THE COURT: Mr. DiFabio?

14 MR. DIFABIO: Judge, when -- going back in time 15 when Judge Horowitz issued her order, with respect to 16 Grandma visiting with the child, it was proffered then by 17 Ms. Walsh's then attorney that Ms. Walsh be permitted to 18 stay for the visit. Judge Horowitz denied that and said 19 it's fine if you want to observe from afar, but you can't 20 stay there during the visit. Mom and Grandma -- Grandma 21 and the child need to get acquainted. It's okay if she 22 cries. She'll get used to it. So I would oppose Ms. Walsh 23 being present for the visit because it would defeat the 24 purpose. And, again, Judge, based on Ms. Walsh's 25 representation, last time, it appears from her words that

1 the child and the grandmother are acquainted. So I don't 2 think that there's a need for that.

3 With respect to New Castle, Judge, I don't see 4 Grandma taking the child far from the local area so I don't 5 see that as an issue. However, my client may have an issue 6 with the every other weekend. What he was proposing was 7 every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday which makes sense 8 because Ms. Walsh's mother is babysitting the child anyway.
9 So and if it's a question of to and from, I think we can 10 work that out but I don't think Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 11 is unremarkable.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Weddle?

13 MR. WEDDLE: Judge Horowitz' comments came over a 14 year ago. My understanding is during the course of the 15 pandemic there's been minimal contact between Ms. Russell 16 and Evie and that is my client's concern. With respect to 17 having my client's parents facilitate this in any way, 18 shape, or form, as the Court is aware, they are sort of 19 getting tired of being sued by Mr. Russell. There's been a 20 lot of -- there's been a flurry of litigation outside of 21 this courthouse and my client is unwilling to put them in 22 that position at this time nor would I think that they 23 would want to.

24 I mean, 2 -- I couldn't do 2 to 4 three days a 25 week in the middle of the week. I mean, I have -- I have a

1 job. And so does Ms. Walsh. This seems very reasonable to 2 me on the weekends. It's an introduction. I assume 3 they'll be back here in the not-too-distant future to 4 revisit this. I would, however, like to hear from Ms.
5 Jackman, if the Court doesn't mind.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Jackman.

7 MS. JACKMAN: I was just going to say that the 8 weekends are a start. I think it's easier and more 9 predictable and it's -- it's a starting point and maybe 10 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday is too much to jump into all at 11 once after all this time, so I think alternate weekends, a 12 couple of hours per day with a gradual increase is probably 13 best.

14 THE COURT: All right. So why don't we start
15 with the every other weekend for three hours on Saturday 16 and three hours on Sunday and then when we pick the date to 17 come back for the conference, we'll see how far out that is 18 --

19 MR. RUSSELL: I don't believe my mother's 20 available on the weekends.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. DiFabio?

22 MS. JACKMAN: So if we're doing it on a Monday, 23 Tuesday, or Wednesday, Max, what time would she be able to 24 come in because Tara does go to work and she's the one that 25 needs to facilitate the pickup -- the transfers of the 1 child?

2 MR. DIFABIO: Steve, would you and Linda be 3 amenable to doing it from 5 to 7, I think was an hour 4 (inaudible) earlier. Would that be okay, 5 to 8?

5 MR. WEDDLE: No, I think we've offered a couple 6 things so, yeah, my mom is flexible during the workday.
7 You know, she's almost 70 years old and so she's asked for 8 that but she could pickup, you know, Evie in the morning
9 and half-day, arrange for Evie to be dropped back off 10 through a sitter if there's some tension. You should know 11 that the Walshes spoke to my mother and very strongly 12 stated they would never allow the visits to happen. And 13 even went so far to say that any orders from this Court 14 would be put in the trash, so it was very, very tough and 15 very clear.

16 THE COURT: That's something that can easily be 17 dealt with, if that's what happens. There are consequences 18 for violating court orders, but let's -- let's not go down
19 that (inaudible). Mr. --

20 MR. RUSSELL: May I make one more comment on 21 scheduling, Your Honor? Just very quickly. We're in a -- 22 the trial for the battery case in San Francisco. Starts in 23 one week, and so this is -- with respect to my scheduling, 24 I -- we're going to be in court and moving forward in San 25 Francisco, I believe starting on June 7th or June 8th, and

1 you know we're going to have to -- you know, that'll 2 obviously affect my schedule.

3 THE COURT: Right, and it is difficult when 4 you're dealing with a three-hour time difference. Ms.
5 Walsh, do you have a regular work schedule?

6 MS. WALSH: Yeah, I do, and Evie does, too. You
7 know, she's being potty-trained now. She has swim classes 8 coming up. She has different art classes in the summer.
9 She's starting nursery school in September which is going 10 to be five days a week.

11 I can tell you that, you know, when I have spoken 12 with Linda Russell (ph) she has -- the last time she 13 visited Evie was on a weekend. I do think she's available 14 on the weekends. I think it's -- she doesn't work. She's 15 retired. And she's spoken to me about coming on the 16 weekends before including this prior weekend that she 17 wanted to come. So I think it's -- it's a little 18 unreasonable to say she can't come any weekends. It's 19 very, very hard for me to like rearrange my entire schedule 20 during the week. I go into the city all the time. I have 21 different meetings. It's -- it's very hard for me to do 22 three days in a row during the work day. I mean, I would 23 be jeopardizing my business and income if I did that.

24 THE COURT: When do you go into the city?

25 MS. WALSH: I go into the city like three days a

1 week now. It depends. I've been working. I have a 2 variety of different clients in the city. One of those 3 clients has asked that I go into their office regularly 4 every week. And then I'm gradually -- before I was going 5 to the city, you know, three to five days a week, so I'm 6 working on that to work out of New York again in Midtown.

7 THE COURT: What time do you start?

8 MS. WALSH: I generally start around 9 and I go, 9 you know, depending on the day but even if I'm working from 10 home, I'm in front of my computer. I have my clients 11 calling. I'm doing meetings. I'm not like, just because 12 -- when I do work from home it's not like -- I don't have a 13 normal job. You know, I'm accountable. I have to be 14 working all day.

15 THE COURT: So maybe we could do a one day a week
16 where you could just transfer Evie to Ms. Russell before 17 you go to work and she can just keep her that day so your 18 parents don't have to deal with the transfer.

19 MS. WALSH: For the entire? Okay.

20 THE COURT: Yeah, I mean, there's -- there's 21 endless possibilities as to how this can be arranged, and 22 really the bottom line here is, if you don't agree, I'm 23 going to just make up a schedule that sounds fair to me and 24 it will probably inconvenience one or maybe all of you. It 25 will be a court order, and the only way you will be able to

1       revise it is if you all consent, which seems to be a 2       problem in this case. But I started this conference at 3       2:00. It's (inaudible) hour and a half, and I don't feel 4       like we've made much progress. And I'm not quite sure how 5       you want to leave it. I mean, I can issue an order right
6       now on the record that sounds relatively fair to me as I
7       said, and then just leave it to you. If you want to change
8       it to do any change in writing. I don't think that's going 9       to make everybody happy but when, you know, one side 10      proposes something and the other side rejects it and then 11      proposes something, the first side rejects it, it's hard to 12      work out something that everybody can (inaudible).

13               MR. DIFABIO: Your Honor, I think my client would 14      live with your order. Steve, am I correct in saying that?

15               MR. RUSSELL: Yeah, subject to my mother's 16      schedule and whatnot.

17               MR. DIFABIO: Well, it's not going to happen that 18      way.

19               MR. RUSSELL: I'll try to be -- I mean, it's -- I 20      follow court orders, so I respect (inaudible).

21               MR. DIFABIO: All right. Steve, so you know, the 22      judge is not going to entertain your argument or Tara's.
23      She's going to do what she thinks is fair and reasonable 24      regardless of anyone's schedule unless you and Tara are 25      willing to come to a compromise. That's what the judge is 1 saying.

2 MR. RUSSELL: I -- you know, I'd love to continue 3 the discussion offline. I wasn't -- I didn't get to 4 participate in the discussions you all had and I know
5 probably Your Honor is curious as to what happened, you 6 know, over the course of the week to derail the past visits 7 and, you know, I think based on that I would certainly 8 welcome any thoughts you had on, you know, getting things 9 moving again. We've had a really tough time.

10 THE COURT: Well, at this point, I think we 11 should pick an adjourn date so I can see what period of 12 time we're dealing with. And when I know that time frame, 13 it'll be easier to come up with some kind of order that 14 will be an interim order.

15 MS. JACKMAN: I was thinking if it has to be done 16 during the week, maybe we could -- Ms. Walsh could just 17 have one set day that she works from home, that way she 18 would be there to do the transfer.

19 MR. DIFABIO: That may be up to the clients.

20 MS. WALSH: I mean, if it's -- again, it's like 21 I'm on a schedule. Evie's on a schedule so if it's 22 something that's scheduled that I know that I can, you 23 know, not schedule meetings on or not go into the city for 24 that would be extremely helpful just for, you know, the 25 consistency like Jennifer said.

1 THE COURT: So does that work better for you if 2 we just pick one day during the week so every other 3 Wednesday -- every Wednesday then you would know -- I'm 4 just throwing out Wednesday, it could be any day of the 5 week, then you would know that you would have to transfer 6 Evie to Ms. Russell and then she would work it out with you 7 to return Evie whenever your work day is over, 5:00 or 8 whatever time that is and then we'll see how that goes.
9 She'll have a good chunk of time and eventually we're 10 hoping to segue this to Mr. Russell having these visits. I 11 know maybe he's not coming in every week from California 12 but it would be typical certainly for a parent to have 13 extended visits with the child.

14 MR. RUSSELL: I would love that, Your Honor. I 15 think it's about a six-and-a-half-hour drive from 16 Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania where my mom is coming from, so 17 the one day a week I know has been tough and she's more 18 than happy to do and just act and provide free childcare 19 for Evie during an eight-hour day. She's a lovely woman, a 20 nurse, you know, sent two kids to Stanford. She's taken 21 care of my nieces and nephews, I'm sure she would do an 22 excellent job watching Evie during the day and, you know, 23 at two to three days a week, I think it makes sense for her
24 to get in the car and drive, you know, six-and-a-half hours 25 one day and six-and-a-half hours the other way.

1 THE COURT: But she spends the night in 2 Westchester, is my understanding?

3 MR. RUSSELL: Well, the last time she drove out 4 and then she got here and was told to drive home and then 5 she drove home, and then she got home and said she could 6 have 20 minutes that day if she drove back out. So she 7 left a little bit just exasperated at that. She, you know, 8 she really, you know, she's offered really earnestly to 9 come out and provide childcare for Evie (inaudible).

10 THE COURT: So I think what would be best for 11 everyone here is to have a specific schedule so that we 12 don't leave it up to as arranged between the parties 13 because at some point it just becomes easier down the road
14 if there's further litigation for there to be a court order 15 saying certain time and certain day and then to prove who 16 -- where the gap was if it wasn't complied with. So if 17 she's -- if she's willing to come out and have one full day 18 of a visit, then what was proposed before was three days, 19 three days, three consecutive days for two hours a day. I 20 don't know if that, you know, that's six hours of visits 21 over three days. Maybe it's better to have one 8-hour or 22 9-hour or 10-hour day.

23 MR. RUSSELL: I would think so if that's what we 24 get, you know, are certainly going to take it. I would ask 25 that maybe we do two days. It would just kind of, I think,

1 make it easier on her. And also, you know, once -- my mom
2 really could do a wonderful job and I think once everybody 3 sees that it's just a fine situation, a lot of this kind of 4 energy and angst that causes these delays and stuff will 5 fade away and we can get past this.

6 THE COURT: All right. I have time on June 25th.

7 MR. WEDDLE: It would depend on the time, Your 8 Honor.

9 THE COURT: I have a lot of time on that day.
10 Ms. Jackman? Mr. DiFabio?

11 MR. DIFABIO: I'm wide open the 25th. It's a 12 Friday, right, Judge?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. DIFABIO: Yes, wide open.

15 MS. JACKMAN: 2:00? I have a 9:30.

16 THE COURT: I have a 9:30 and a 2:00 right now so 17 any other time.

18 MS. JACKMAN: Okay. So any time after 9:30, 19 Judge.

20 MR. DIFABIO: Want to do 11, Judge? Chris, are 21 you okay at 11?

22 MR. WEDDLE: Yeah, I'm in front of Judge Horowitz
23 at 10:30 but should be done by 11.

24 THE COURT: All right. So let's say June 25th at 25 11:00. So that's not very long. What day of the week is 1 best for you, Ms. Walsh?

2 MS. WALSH: A Thursday is probably best.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And before you start work, so 4 what? Like 8:30?

5 MS. WALSH: Yeah, 8:30. I guess like the 6 logistics. I would like to be able to drop her off because 7 I have like her car seat and stuff. I just think that 8 would be easier, time wise for me. And then, you know, 9 probably pick her up around 5:30, 6?

10 THE COURT: Okay. And is the transfer going to 11 be at the Kittle House?

12 MS. WALSH: The Kittle House would be fine, yeah, 13 I would just again like to be able to know where Evie was 14 and have a contact number that I can call and, you know, 15 just be able to --

16 THE COURT: Well, you have Grandma's number, 17 correct?

18 MS. WALSH: Yeah, I have Grandma's number but 19 just make sure that, you know, I would just like to know 20 where she is and if she could stay within New Castle, like 21 we said, you know, the general town that would certainly 22 make me feel comfortable.

23 THE COURT: All right. Is there something to do
24 in New Castle?

25 MR. WEDDLE: Oh, yeah, we have parks.

1 MR. DIFABIO: Judge, I think Westchester would be 2 sufficient.

3 MR. RUSSELL: Mom loves the Kittle House. It's 4 fine but sometimes they don't have rooms and so if there 5 could be, you know, just another hotel or Airbnb we'd get 6 in the area, you know, we would certainly let everybody 7 know where Evie is and you know contact information and 8 whatnot.

9 THE COURT: Okay. At this point, because we're 10 only dealing with a few weeks, I'll just at this point stay 11 that she is to stay within New Castle but I don't think 12 that's really going to be reasonable moving forward. So 13 paternal grandma will have visits with Evie every Thursday 14 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Pickup and drop off will be by 15 Ms. Walsh at Grandma's hotel. Grandma to confirm 24 hours 16 in advance, especially given that Ms. Walsh is not going to 17 know necessarily where she's staying.

18 There shall be no tape recording of any of these 19 visits. I understand she will want to take some 20 photographs. There's to be no public dissemination of any 21 photos or videos that may have been taken in the past.
22 Grandma may facilitate FaceTime access with Dad. That will 23 be supervised also by Jen Cully or observed by Jen Cully.
24 Mr. Russell shall not be physically present.

25 This is to be the schedule that remains in place

1 unless everyone agrees in writing. Did I cover everything?

2 MR. DIFABIO: Just a commencement date, Your 3 Honor, of the visit.

4 THE COURT: Well, I leave that up to Ms. Russell.
5 If she can be in by this Thursday, it can start. Yeah.
6 Why don't we have it start June 3rd.

7 MR. DIFABIO: Steve, will she be in town or is 8 she going to be away?

9 MR. RUSSELL: So this is an order for my mother's 10 visits on Thursdays, what we just went through and, you 11 know, I of course, will have to talk to her after this. I 12 assume she'll move heaven and earth to make it work, Your 13 Honor. And myself as well.

14 THE COURT: Right, yeah, I mean, it's obviously 15 it's much easier when the parties can work with each other 16 and have flexibility but I think that at this point in the 17 case tensions are still too high and -- and it's just hard 18 to come up with a court order when everybody disagrees with 19 the proposals. But I hope that you'll think about possible 20 situations moving forward and maybe when we come back June 21 25th we'll be able to put a new schedule in place.

22 Your mother is certainly, Mr. Russell, welcome to 23 be present on this call because if we're talking about her 24 schedule I think it might just make sense for her to be 25 here. And then we could accommodate her schedule.

1 MR. RUSSELL: (Inaudible) order that we don't -- 2 sorry about that, I didn't mean to talk over but one of our 3 concerns is that the Walshes have been kind of a silent 4 party in this and they -- they really do quite aggressively 5 ignore and prevent these visits. And one of the reasons 6 that I think we're tiptoeing around the schedule of the 7 full day is that the Walshes won't approve of it or they 8 can't be aware of it. And it's (inaudible) it's difficult 9 --

10 THE COURT: Okay. (Inaudible).

11 MR. RUSSELL: -- enough.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Russell, this is a court order at 13 this point, so the Court (inaudible) violations of court 14 orders have consequences, and I'm not quite sure what the 15 Walshes -- why they should have anything to do with this 16 but there's consequences if people violate my court order, 17 and so I'm hoping that this will go smoothly and if not, if 18 we need to tweak this when we come back, we'll do that but 19 I expect that this will happen the way I'm ordering it.

20 MR. RUSSELL: Okay. Well -- what is the process, 21 Your Honor, of looping in my mother?

22 THE COURT: Every Thursday again -- every 23 Thursday 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., pickup and drop off by Ms.
24 Walsh at Ms. Russell's hotel. Ms. Russell must confirm 25 with Ms. Walsh 24 hours in advance so Ms. Walsh knows where

1 to pickup Evie. Grandma to stay in New Castle. She is not 2 to tape record. There is to be no public dissemination of 3 any photos or any videos that are already in existence or 4 any photos that are in existence or may be taken, and Mr.
5 Russell is not to be physically present. However, his 6 access to Evie will be supervised by or facilitated by 7 Grandma as well as Jen Cully on FaceTime. You're not to be 8 present. Okay? So I don't know if you want to order the 9 transcript, it's so ordered. If someone wants to make a 10 little interim order on the basis of what I just said. I 11 have another matter that I have to attend to at this point.
12 Yes, Mr. DiFabio?

13 MR. DIFABIO: Judge, one quick caveat, I know you 14 have to go. In the event that the Kittle House is 15 unavailable, then the New Castle restriction won't be 16 effective so we can say or in the geographic location of 17 her hotel to be in Westchester, of course.

18 THE COURT: Yes, good point.

19 MR. RUSSELL: My visits will be denied again, 20 unfortunately, but I (inaudible).

21 THE COURT: Well, okay, I can't -- Mr. Russell, I 22 understand what you're saying and, again, I understand 23 there's hostilities here but if the visits --

24 MR. RUSSELL: Not on my part.

25 THE COURT: -- I know, but there will be

1 consequences.

2 MR. RUSSELL: There never have been in the past,
3 Your Honor. The police report is that I threatened to kill 4 my daughter.

5 THE COURT: But can you have --

6 MR. RUSSELL: And she said it was a lie. There 7 were no consequences.

8 MS. WALSH: It's very -- it's very unfair that 9 he's going on and on about this stuff because it's just not 10 reality. So --

11 MR. RUSSELL: I've never seen consequences
12 (inaudible).

13 THE COURT: Okay. When I -- but you've not had 14 me as a judge before so --

15 MR. RUSSELL: Fair enough.

16 THE COURT: -- I expect that my court orders will 17 be followed. I expect that there will be consequences to 18 those who don't follow my court order, so if this court 19 order is not followed, there will be consequences. It's a 20 little difficult because you're in California but we'll 21 deal with it. So I will see you all June 25th at 11:00.
22 Does someone want to submit an order or you want to do it 23 by the transcript?

24 MR. DIFABIO: Transcript, Jen? Chris?

25 MR. WEDDLE: (Inaudible) expedited right now.

1 MR. DIFABIO: Okay, thank you (inaudible).

2 MS. JACKMAN: That's fine.

3 THE COURT: Ms. Jackman, are you in agreement 4 with this interim order?

5 MS. JACKMAN: Yes, Judge, I am.

6 MR. RUSSELL: I'd like to see a written order.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So someone will 8 submit a written order and I'll sign off on it. Thank you.

9 MR. RUSSELL: Thank you.

10 MR. WEDDLE: Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Bye.
